DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on October 8, 2003 has been entered.

Drawings

2. The drawings were received on October 8, 2003. These drawings are approved.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. Claims 12 and 21 were rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Correction is noted and the rejection is withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

5. Claims 1, 2, 5-11, 13-20 and 30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent No. 6,273,911 to Cox et al.

See the attached Figure 6 for the structural limitations of the claimed stent.

Art Unit: 3731

6. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent No. 5,843,175 to Frantzen.

See attached Figure 4 for the claimed structural limitations of the claimed stent.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claims 12 and 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Cox et al. '911 in view of U.S. Patent No. 5,925,061 to Ogi et al.

Cox discloses the claimed invention except for the nonlinear connecting links. Ogi teaches that nonlinear connecting links (FIGS 5a-5d) provide more compressibility in the longitudinal direction of the stent and increases the bendability of the stent in radial directions (Column 7 line 36-Column 8 line 35). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the device of Cox with the nonlinear connecting link in order to increase the stents compressibility in the longitudinal direction and increase the bendability of the stent in radial directions.

Response to Arguments

9. Applicant's arguments filed October 8, 2003 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

10. Applicant argues that Cox '911 does not show adjacent linear and nonlinear bar arms defining the crests. It is unclear from the applicants' arguments what is not shown in the attached Figure 6. As shown above, Cox has adjacent linear and nonlinear bar arms defining the crests. Therefore, the rejection over Cox et al. '911 is proper.

Art Unit: 3731

11. Applicant argues that Frantzen '175 does not show "a repeated series of at least three adjacent ring portions configured in substantially the same orientation throughout the stent." As shown above, the attached Figure 4 of Frantzen includes at least three rings in substantially the same orientation. Therefore, the rejection over Frantzen '175 is proper.

Conclusion

12. All claims are drawn to the same invention claimed in the application prior to the entry of the submission under 37 CFR 1.114 and could have been finally rejected on the grounds and art of record in the next Office action if they had been entered in the application prior to entry under 37 CFR 1.114. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL even though it is a first action after the filing of a request for continued examination and the submission under 37 CFR 1.114. See MPEP § 706.07(b). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
